

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PREFACE AND ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.....	ix
I. INTRODUCTION.....	1
1. The Great Famine in Contemporary Irish Culture: Breaking Silences and Joseph O'Connor's Trilogy as Literary Mission (Im)Possible.....	1
2. Joseph O'Connor's Trilogy and Famine Fiction: Overview of Current Research.....	5
3. Desiderata, Central Questions and Aims of the Study.....	8
4. Central Concepts, Methods and Outline of the Study.....	10
II. THROUGH THE LENS OF HUNGER: THE GREAT FAMINE AS A CULTURAL NARRATIVE.....	13
1. The Famine Emplotment: An Outline of the Great Hunger Debate.....	17
1.1 Political Implications: The Great Famine and the Debate of Blame.....	19
1.2 Transnational Dimensions: Historical Duty as the Famine Social Debate.....	22
1.3 Inexpressible and Unspeakable but Imaginable? Silence and Crisis of Representation in Cultural Discussions of the Famine.....	25
2. Representations of the Great Famine from Victorian to Postmodern Fiction.....	31
III. THEORETICAL AND METHODOLOGICAL FRAMEWORK: APPROACHING NARRATIVE WORLDMAKING IN JOSEPH O'CONNOR'S IRISH AMERICAN TRILOGY.....	37
1. Textual Interplay: Intertextuality as the Object and Method of Analysis.....	42
1.1 Intertextual Categories: Individual and System References, Markers and Features.....	45
1.2 "Making Connections": Intertextuality as a Method of Analysis.....	48
2. Picture – Music – Text: Intermedial References.....	49
3. Famine Voices: Perspective Structure and Aspects of Narrative Transmission...	51
4. Writing History, Making Worlds: From the Revisionist Historical Novel to Historiographic Metafiction (and Back).....	56

IV.	FAMINE WORDS AND FAMINE WORLDS: FACETS OF STARVATION AND NEGOTIATING THE HISTORY OF THE GREAT HUNGER IN STAR OF THE SEA	62
1.	Dickens, Brontë and the Great Hunger: Challenging the Literary Archive of the Famine.....	65
1.1	Hero or Fraud? Deconstructing Dickens as a Supreme Victorian Writer... 66
1.2	Fragment of the Famine: Transtextual Testing of Wuthering Heights as a Palimpsest of the Great Hunger Literary Archive	71
2.	Pictures of Hunger, Songs of Starvation: Multimedial Explorations of the Worldmaking and Mnemonic Capacities of the Great Hunger Narrative	77
2.1	“Apes and Angels”: Negotiating Irish Cultural Identity in 19 th -Century Illustrations	78
2.2	“A Hidden Holy Well”: Mnemonic and Worldmaking Powers of Ballads.....	85
3.	Walking Ghosts: Investigating the Portrayal of the Famine through Wandering Characters	91
3.1	From Ballad-Maker to the “Modern Irish Trickster”: Palimpsestic Worldmaking of Pius Mulvey and the Construction of the Famine Narrative	94
3.2	From Mary Magdalene to Holy Mary: Call for Revision and Enacting Hope within the Transformations of Mary Duane	101
4.	“Farewell to Old Ireland”: Generating Post-Famine Worlds in Historiographic Metafiction.....	108
4.1	Evil Landlord and Suffering Tenant: Subverting the Blame Discourse ...	109
4.2	“It can never be written, Mary”: Challenging Famine Silences	114
4.3	“Everything is in the way the material is composed”: Metafictional Deconstruction of the Famine Narrative	117
V.	NEW HOME, NEW IRISHNESS: TRANSITIONS AND TRANSNATIONAL POLYPHONY OF IRISH AMERICA IN REDEMPTION FALLS	121
1.	From Erin to Amerikay: The Narrative Composition and Character Constellation of Redemption Falls	123
2.	Famine Family and the Polyphony of Irish America	125
2.1	The Female Face of the Famine: Eliza Duane Mooney as a Fragment of the Great Hunger	126
2.2	The Making of an Irish American Male: Challenging Irish Hero Narratives.....	135

3.	As Told by a Mute Boy: Breaking Silences in the Metafictional Life-Writing of Jeddo Mooney	148
4.	From Irish Ballads to Black American Spirituals: Translating Irishness through Song	155
VI.	CURE FOR THE HUNGRY PAST: REVISION, REVIVAL AND STAGING FAMINE ECHOES IN GHOST LIGHT	162
1.	The Revival Revised: Challenging the Central Figures of the Gaelic Renaissance as Irish Literary Metanarratives	165
2.	Hearing Molly: Imagination and History Writing in the Revisionist Historical Novel	173
3.	Acting and Worldmaking: Staging Post-Famine Irishness	180
4.	Famine World(s) of the Trilogy: The Worldmaking Functions of the Hunger Trope	185
VII.	CONCLUSION	191
1.	The Famine Trilogy: The Great Hunger in Words and Worlds	191
2.	Famine Words: Tropes and Modes of Representing the Great Hunger.....	193
3.	Famine Worlds: Effects of Negotiating the Great Hunger	199
4.	Why Does Historical Fiction Matter? The Cultural Work of the Trilogy and Trajectories for Future Research	202
VIII.	BIBLIOGRAPHY	209
1.	Primary Sources	209
2.	Secondary Sources	211
3.	Internet Sources	226
4.	Images.....	227
IX.	APPENDIX: IMAGES	228